Priority is given to families who practise Orthodox Judaism as certified by the Electoral Rabbis of the Jewish Secondary School Movement (JSSM).

For entrance into Edgware Jewish Primary School (EJPS) the assessment is based upon:

Full commitment to Shabbos and Yom Tov observance.
We are looking for families who are fully observant of Shabbos and Yom Tov, both at home and outside. It is a school principle that all families coming to EJPS should be comfortable spending Shabbos and Yom Tov in each other's homes.

Parents please confirm this is the case

Rabbi please confirm this is the case

Fully kosher home.
We are looking for families who are fully observant with kashrus both inside and outside the home. It is a school principle that all families coming to EJPS should be comfortable eating in each other's homes.

Please now forward this SIF to your Rabbi(s).

Once signed, the SIF must be posted to the school.

For parents of children applying for Reception and above please remember that your Common Application Form (CAF) must be completed and submitted to Barnet. It must NOT be sent to the school as this will delay your child's application.
